

Organize your professional appointments in the heart of the new economic and financial place: Shanghai.

With the announcement of a new free-trade zone in Shanghai, on September 29th, the Chinese city has become the best place for all your business trips. Located only 39 minutes away from the international airport of Pudong, the Mansion Hotel has meeting and conference rooms and proposes high-tech audiovisual devices to organise high-end professional appointments. This five-star hotel also provides two restaurants and a bar on the roof which offers a breathtaking view over a part of the city. You may also enjoy the concierge and assistance services which will prepare touristic visits for you to discover the large and diversified city of Shanghai.

You may prefer the western district and walk through the streets of Pudong, a business district famous for its extravagant skyscrapers. This place, which is the favourite of most of businessmen and is a symbol of capitalism and liberalism, will take you to a futurist universe. You will be impressed by its skyscrapers, its Jinmao Tower all made in glass which melts into the sky and the bottle-opener-shaped Shanghai World Financial Tower. A visit that will make you always looking up!
